La Clusaz

An instant getaway between lake and mountains, only 1h from Geneva Airport. Relaxed and at the meantime sporty resort, international alpine destination and the charm of a mountain village. Did your clients already try the « Pass Experience »? 1 card = 15 activities, ideal for families

Le Grand Bornand

FOR AVENTURE: Le Grand-Bornand has 160 km of signposted hiking trails, including a climb up the impressive Pointe Percée, overlooking the Aravis range from an altitude of 2700m, some famous climbing routes and a via-ferrata. For cycling, the resort has featured 8 times in the Tour de France since 1995 and can boast the fearsome ascent of the Col de la Colombière, a top site on the Route des Grandes Alpes tourist itinerary, plus 102 km of mountain-bike trails in the Alpine pastures

FOR ITS BOHEMIAN SPIRIT : With just over forty farms producing the famous farmhouse reblochon cheese, craftspeople with workshops in some of the oldest chalets in the resort, and over 400 chalets two-century-old chalets (a record), the surprising Cow Art trail bringing colour to the streets and banks of the River Borne, an attractive mountain stream where you can dip your feet after a walk, Le Grand-Bornand is always a delight for bohemian spirits. Unless you prefer the bustling atmosphere of «La Source» with its nature and culture workshops, or the poetry of a picnic at sunset on the banks of the Lac de la Cour.

FOR ITS EPICUREAN SPIRIT: The top-quality restaurants serving the best in local gastronomy based on short food-supply chains are a well-deserved reward after an intense golfing session on the 10-hole course. Or you might prefer to get back into focus with a spot of open-air yoga in the company of one of the village's qualified instructors

Val d'Isère

In summer, the traditional village of Val d'Isère surrounded by the Vanoise National Park and accessible via the legendary Iseran Pass offers all kinds of adventure. The Bike Park adapted to different disciplines, including the increasingly popular electric biking, attracts biking lovers of all levels.
